

5 Skills Workers Need to Succeed in the ‘Next’ Normal of Work

Evolutionary skills needed by workers to succeed in the next normal of work

AGILITY THROUGH AMBIGUITY

Workers who can stay grounded and agile in times of constant disruption will ‘win’ in the next normal.

MENTAL RESILIENCE

Workers who can handle constant pivots, changing variables of projects and difficult dynamics have an advantage.

INTEGRITY IN ACTION

Workers who focus on ‘people first’ and being a leader without title will be in high demand.

‘WE’ MINDSET

Workers who value diversity of thought and seek input and are focused on team success have an advantage for future job stability.

BIG LOVE FOR SOLUTIONS

Workers who bring solid ideas and add value to others through solutions will be guaranteed work in the future.
